As a member of the Westview Navy Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (NJROTC), I am asking you to "Support Your Cadet" by helping us to meet our program needs. As we enter another exciting year, the benefits of our program to our school and the local community are bountiful. Under the guidance of our devoted instructors and dedicated cadet leaders, cadets develop leadership skills, self-discipline, physical and mental toughness, lasting friendships and a strong sense of belonging to something positive. In addition to classroom academic activities focusing on citizenship, government, history and physical sciences, cadets actively participate in fitness training, military drill (marching) and weekly uniform inspections. We have the option of participating in Drill, Color Guard, Athletic, Academic, STEM (CyberPatriot and others), and Air Rifle Marksmanship. We also perform service hours at community and school events throughout the year. These experiences enhance our chances for future success in college, the military or the working world.

Expenses for our program are considerable since we need money to travel and enter various competitions across the state of California and elsewhere when we qualify for regional or national events. While the Navy provides some funding, your sponsorship benefits all cadets by defraying expenses for travel to competitions (Qualifiers, Regionals and Nationals), entrance fees and meals while competing. Yearly it costs the unit over $8,000 to travel to competitions from October through April. We also require support for drill team accessories, meals at special events, awards, NJROTC ball, air rifle marksmanship fees, and other unit needs. Over $15, 000 is spent annually on all unit competitions and functions. Wolverine Navy is "High Octane" and enjoys being able to provide numerous activities for cadets. I appreciate you sponsoring our continued achievement, growth and learning!!!

All paid sponsors receive a "Thank You" note since your gift is tax deductible. Sponsor information and contributions are held in strictest confidence. 100% of these funds support our activities.
